Overview

Solar panel insurance coverage is included in most homeowners insurance policies, which means no separate solar panel insurance is needed. Solar energy systems and the rooftop panels or tiles are largely considered a permanent attachment to your property, similar to a patio or a. Coverage varies dramatically by installation type: Roof-mounted panels are typically covered under dwelling coverage with higher limits, while ground-mounted systems fall under “other structures” coverage limited to just 10% of your dwelling coverage—potentially leaving expensive systems. Solar panel insurance is the protection your homeowners policy provides for your solar energy system. A solar system adds significant value to your property. In many cases, you won't need an additional add-on or “rider” that would impact your plan or premiums. Ground-mounted solar panels may be covered under. Solar installation insurance offers complete protection against an unexpected financial blow, which can be caused by partial or complete damage to the panel system, theft, or an accident directly related to the solar installation.
