

Is it a scam to install photovoltaic panels in a rented house

Overview

While you are browsing solar power companies, one of them may offer to install a solar panel or solar roof in your home for a small cost or even for free. It's an intentionally misleading claim. Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry. Here are red flags to look out for when. Did a salesperson knock on your door and promise free rooftop solar panels at no cost to you?

Or say you'll never have to pay another electricity bill because government programs, grants, or rebates cover your solar installation?

It's likely a scam. Always look for businesses you can trust - like Accredited Businesses using the BBB Seal. To avoid getting scammed, you need to know what to look out for and when to walk away.
